

Elisha: Open His Eyes, Lord!
2 Kings 6:8-23

I. God opens our eyes to remind us that He is in charge.

- A. We might have our plans, but God's plan will always _____.
- B. God uses the failures of our plans to reveal something about His nature and _____.

II. God opens our eyes when we are desperate for Him.

- A. God lets us see His comfort and gives us _____ in our time of need.
- B. Seeing reminds us that God provided for our need _____ we knew we had one (Deut. 31:8a)!
- C. God ultimately allows us to see His _____ mercy.
1. Mercy means we do not receive what we _____ (James 2:13).
  2. Mercy (loving kindness) leads to a change in _____ (Rom.2:4).

“We teach people to follow Jesus.”
