

Simplify: Learning to Have a Conversation with God
Matthew 6:5-13; Luke 11:1-4

I. A conversation with God is called prayer.

- A. Conversations are two-way communications. They involve speaking and _____.
- B. Conversations are not _____ for the purpose of being seen and heard by others.
- C. Conversations are a _____ exchange of words.

II. Jesus teaches how to begin your conversation with God the Father.

- A. Revere and acknowledge his name. Acknowledge that you want His name through you to be _____.
- B. I am _____ waiting for your kingdom to arrive. While I am waiting, let your will be done in my life here on earth.
- C. You are _____. I am thankful.
- D. Forgive my sin – confess it _____. Since you have forgiven me, I offer my forgiveness to...
- E. Help me not face _____ where I will be tempted to sin. Help me persevere through those _____ I face.
- F. You are my _____. I am grateful.
- G. You are Sovereign, all powerful and glorified _____!

Jesus said, "Follow Me," so you can start living S to the power of 3!