

I And The Father Are One
John 10:22-42

I. The Feast of Dedication (Festival of Lights).

- A. This is a feast of _____ based on a revolt by Judas Maccabeus. It is not prescribed anywhere in Scripture.
- B. The revolt was a _____ and liberation of the Temple (164 BC – 25th Day of Kislev).
- C. The feast is still recognized today and its length is based on biblical feasts. It is also called _____.
- D. The religious leaders saw this public setting as another opportunity to discredit him and accuse him of _____.

II. I and The Father are one.

- A. Jesus' sheep know his voice and _____. Jesus calls them by name. The leaders did not follow him or know his voice.
- B. Jesus made the claim that none of his sheep are lost because of his and his Father's _____. He and the Father are one in essence, nature and being.
- C. Jesus was able to deescalate their violence by helping them recall _____ before they acted (Psalm 82).
- D. Jesus, once again, offered a final invitation to believe, but the religious leaders were _____ with their unbelief and hate.

“We teach people to follow Jesus”