

Boldness: The Unexpected Benefit of Small Groups
Acts 4:18-24; 29-31

I. Boldness appears with your own “eyewitness” account.

- A. Small Groups _____ faith stories (testimonies) and God moments to show off the Lord Jesus.
- B. One part of your story is always _____:
What are you seeing Jesus do in your life right now?
- C. When people hear and _____ Jesus working in your life, they cannot deny it and they will praise God.

II. Small Groups draw strength from their togetherness.

- A. In the face of threats, Peter and John turned to their _____.
- B. Small groups cling to each other _____ – especially in the face of persecution.

III. Small Groups lift their voices to the Lord together.

- A. Small groups pray that they would not be _____ to speak the name of Jesus.
- B. Small groups pray that Jesus would _____ in their lives so others will not be able to deny it.
- C. The answered prayer will be a united _____ where everyone continues to speak the word of God.

“We teach people to follow Jesus.”
